

Are You Planning to run
the Women's Mini Marathon in 2015?

All Together in Dignity (ATD)
needs your support!

Who are we?

All Together in Dignity is a voluntary based organisation working in very poor communities in 35 countries around the world (Charity no: 18678)

What kind of work do we do in Ireland?

Every week, we meet, visit and support people who are struggling and living in persistent poverty in Dublin (visit www.atdireland.ie)

Every year, ATD contributes to the preparation and staging of the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty on 17 October in Dublin (visit www.17october.ie).

In 2015, your steps will make a difference in Ireland and abroad

For every €10 collected, €3 will fund our work in Ireland and €7 will be sent to the ATD team in the Central African Republic (CAR)

Since March 2013, violence has torn the country apart. In Bangui, the capital, people have fled their homes and taken up refuge at the airport where foreign soldiers and humanitarian aid are located. The ATD team is working to run Street Libraries among children at the refugee camp, using the children's artwork to decorate the emergency hospital built by Doctors Without Borders. In 2014, €1000 were sent to ATD in CAR after the Mini-Marathon.
